Enterprise 3, Enterprise plus Pre-Intermediate and Enterprise 4 each consist of four modules and are designed for learners of English at secondary level. The coursebooks are designed to provide systematic preparation in all the skills required for successful communication, both in written and spoken form. The material is clearly structured and easy to use. The Student's Book and the Workbook for each level are designed to be covered in approximately 100 to 120 hours of classroom

This book offers a methodological framework for constructing and validating large-scale testing systems and fills this framework through an account of the construction and validation of one specific testing system, which relies on the construct of communicative language ability in the specific context of classroom teaching. The test is called the Test of English for Teaching Purposes (TETP) and it has been developed to assess the engagement of test takers' language proficiency in test tasks which they are likely to encounter outside the testing situation. The book handles prominent issues of the construction and validation of this test. The content is organized into three main parts. Part One presents the results of a baseline study whose focal point is the identification through empirical research of the domain in which EFL teachers use the language when they are at work. This description provides the basis for the definition of the construct of English for Teaching Purposes and, ther

Higher education is going through a turbulent period of change. In this work, distinguished experts from fourteen European countries highlight recent developments that affect today's academic environment. Based on a research project coordinated by Junger Enders at the University of Kassel in Germany, the book highlights the changes taking place in higher education.
