Story Of A Young Journey From The Blitz To
The Bright Lights

London during the Blitz was a time of hardship, heroism and hope. For Gillian Lynne - a budding ballerina - it was also a time of great change as she was evacuated from war-torn London to a crumbling mansion, where dance classes took place in the faded ballroom. Life was hard, but her talent and dedication shone through and an astonishing journey ensued, which saw Gillian dancing a triumphant ...

It was 1942 when Herbert Morrison, himself a ' keen and accomplished ' dancer according to the Liverpool Echo, announced that dancing would not be prohibited due to the war.
Dancing was necessary to maintain morale for both civilian and military populations, something the government clearly recognised.
